Our holistic portfolio empowers us to meet the complex needs of customers today while focusing on the growing needs of tomorrow's consumer.

Deeply rooted in communities throughout North America, we operate in the US, Canada and Puerto Rico with company headquarters in Denver, Colorado. We employ more than 100 certified millers and support thousands of local jobs that contribute billions of dollars to local economies -- helping our people, our customers, and families everywhere flourish.

Ardent Mills serves the entire foodservice industry, including commercial foodservice such as quick service restaurants (QSRs) and casual dining, as well as institutional foodservice operators such as K-12 schools and healthcare facilities. We work closely with foodservice businesses to understand their operational needs so that we can provide ingredients and foods to meet those needs. By keeping an eye on consumer trends, we strive to keep menus relevant for foodservice businesses. From specific pack sizes that fit a facility's abilities to custom blends and mixes, our goal is to help foodservice businesses deliver the best foods that delight consumers while decreasing labor costs.
